

WHO WE ARE

Steered by a vibrant management team, Zizi & Daughters takes pride in its unswerving bouquet of professional skills and expertise as means of ensuring unrivaled quality standards. Thus, in its quest to become a reliable service provider trading in the construction industry, the 100% black woman-owned entity has dedicated itself towards providing quality services to its government and private clients.

The Level 3 Black Economic Empowerment enterprise has set its existence on a hands-on, result-driven approach; which clients such as Amathole District Municipality, Mnquma Local Municipality, Mvula Trust can attest to because of their great project execution. Additionally, the company is graded as a 2GBPE and 1CE contractor according to the Construction Industry Development Board (CIDB).

A devoted community developer, Zizi & Daughters further seeks to directly and indirectly generate job opportunities for local communities. As founder, Nomazizi has firmly committed the company's existence to creating a sustainable legacy for her two daughters.

DIRECTOR

Having worked extensively as a sales consultant for one of South Africa's leading banks, Nomazizi acquired the expertise to drive and seal deals. This paved way for her ambitions to one day manage her own entity.

Nomazizi is well-found with expertise in public administration and project management, which have been the basis of her commitment to provide professional services to clients at all times. This has since been supported by her strategy to invest in a result-driven team that play a vital role to the success of each project.

VISION

Zizi & Daughters Trading intends to create a conducive environment for economic participation, business development and the provision of services that accommodate to the needs of communities and its clients.

MISSION

To identify market needs in order to ensure client satisfaction at all times, while contributing towards community development through job creation and skills transfer.

VALUES

UNRIVALED QUALITY SERVICE
PROFESSIONAL SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE
CLIENT SATISFACTION

Driven by the desire to create something from nothing, in 2007 Nomazizi Ntamo founded Zizi & Daughters Trading; and after eight years in business Nomazizi is now reaping the rewards of her efforts as her company has since gained momentum as a reputable contractor.
